Justice Surrenders to Feminism

Third Schedule, Constitution of India, "Forms of Oaths & Affirmations", Section IV states, "Form of oath or affirmation to be made by the Judges of the Supreme Court and the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India:— "I, A.B., having been appointed Chief Justice (or a Judge) of the Supreme Court of India (or Comptroller and Auditor-General of India) do swear in the name of God/solemnly affirm that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of India as by law established, ¹[that I will uphold the sovereignty and integrity of India,] that I will duly and faithfully and to the best of my ability, knowledge and judgment perform the duties of my office without fear or favour, affection or ill-will and that I will uphold the Constitution and the laws."

Supreme Court of India is ideally the protector of the rights of citizens of the country. However, in recent times, even the Hon'ble Chief Justice of India has surrendered to feminism. This is the death of justice, equality and our society.

On March 01, 2021 while hearing the anticipatory bail matter of Mohit Subhash Chavan vs. The State of Maharashtra & Anr., The Hon'ble Chief justice of India, without going into the merits of the alleged offense, asked the accused to marry the alleged victim as if it was a condition to give him relief. Below were his words as reported by media:

'Will you marry her' remark taken out of context to tarnish image of Supreme Court, says CJI Bobde

TIMESOFINDIA.COM | Updated: Mar 8, 2021, 12:31 IST

NEW DELHI: Chief Justice of India S A Bobde on Monday said his "will you marry her" remark - asking a rape accused whether he will marry the complainant - has been taken out of context and "completely misrepresented."

The news reports and activists quoted this "will you marry her" remark out of context to create a controversy and tarnish the image of the Supreme Court, the apex court said.

The statement comes after CJI's remarks during a bail plea hearing last week in which Bobde asked a man accused of rape whether he will marry the complainant.

The SC bench headed by CJI S A Bobde said it always has the highest respect for womanhood.

"If you want to marry, we can help you. If not, you lose your job and go to jail. You seduced the girl, raped her," Without going into merits of the case, without following the due process of the law, how did CJI decide that the accused seduced the girl, raped her? How did CJI come to the conclusion that the alleged offense was committed?

It did not take long when outraged feminist groups started bashing the CJI and the supreme court for those remarks. Under the feminist pressure, CJI Bobde released his press statement as reported by media: 'Will you marry her' remark taken out of context to tarnish image of Supreme Court, says CJI Bobde

These statements of CJI that "Supreme court always has the highest respect for womanhood" do not sound favouring Human Rights & Equality. They sound more like towards pleasing a single gender while ignoring the other genders. What about Equality? What about Gender Neutrality? What about justice? Does Hon'ble Supreme Court not have respect for justice rather they have the highest respect for just one gender?

After facing outrage by feminists, CJI's words clearly convey the message that supreme court has even higher respect for womanhood than natural justice. Being a woman is enough to bypass the due process of law.

Let's look at the chronology of News Articles, which made lots of noise in India recently:

'Are you willing to marry her?' Supreme Court to rape accused

The comment came at a time when another bench of the Supreme Court is mulling sensitisation programmes and guidelines for judges of the subordinate courts to stop comments and stipulations that might trivialise sexual offences against women.

4,000 Women Rights Activists, Groups Write Open Letter To CJI Bobde, Demand Resignation, Apology Over His Statements

In their open letter, the activists said that they were appalled by the fact that women had to take the burden of explaining the meaning of 'seduction', 'rape', and 'marriage' even to the Chief Justice of India, who holds power and duty to interpret the Constitution of India and sit in judgement.

Cruel men don't deserve relief: Supreme Court on dowry case

NEW DELHI: In what appeared to be a course correction from its "will you marry her" question that drew flak from women activists, a Supreme Court bench headed by CJI S A Bobde on Friday denied anticipatory bail to a husband accused of dowry harassment, sternly observing that "cruel men" don't deserve relief.

The comment was significant as though the husband appeared to have a good case for relief, the CJI-led bench decided to go purely by the woman's allegations. The

CJI Sharad Bobde gives clarification on his 'will you marry her' remark

By FPJ Bureau

The issue should have died down after the accused's lawyer told the court that his client was already married and, so, there was no question of marrying the rape victim

So, the Timeline is like this:

- 2nd March: CJI asks a Rape accused if he is willing to marry the alleged Rape Victim in a courtroom exchange. CJI clarified on 8th March that exchange was w.r.t. the Accused being already married and hence can't marry to establish Promise of Marriage or False Promise of Marriage ground.
- 2 days later, on 4th March, Feminist onslaught (4000 of them) begins asking for Resignation of CJI for this courtroom exchange. The same Feminists happily kept quiet (and rather promoted), Gujarat ex-Governor calling boys as "rejected maal" or Actress Nandita calling "all men as potential Rapist". No one demanded Resignation of Gujarat ex-Governor/CM or didn't run the campaign #ArrestNandita.
- 2 days later, on 6th March, the Justice itself get cruel feminist push when CJI, apparently owing to demand of his resignation 2 days back, just to pacify those feminists, rejects the Bail of a Husband, who is accused of Dowry Harassment by his wife, apparently as a counter complaint to Husband discovering wife's act of sharing her nude pictures with multiple people. MATERIAL FACT, the Husband was in SC seeking Bail, he wasn't convicted yet but the CJI bench, ignored this fact to deny the bail and send the Husband to Jail. Clearly, reaffirms the truth that to be a man and a Husband in India is the biggest threat to life and liberty and as Justice DY Chandrachud has mentioned before, "Constitution is Feminist". Such a rejection of Bail petition is clear violation of at least one paper existence of Article 14, 15, 21 of Constitution of India, goes against the Principal of Natural Justice and is also against the very foundation of Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), to which India has acceded.
- 2 days further, 8th March, CJI issues clarifications about courtroom exchange of the 2nd March news.

So, what are the key takeaways from this chronology?

1. Hon'ble CJI, which is one of the senior most constitutional position in India, is also easily vulnerable to Feminist onslaught, THEN CAN A NORMAL MAN BE SAFE IN INDIA?
2. Courts, even of the stature of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, are guided/misguided as per the whims and fancies of Feminism/Feminists.
3. CRIME HAS GENDER, JUSTICE HAS GENDER, ACCUSED HAS GENDER AND VICTIM HAS GENDER, as per the Hon'ble Supreme Court too (feminists wanted it the same way). Whereas Crime & Accused have MALE gender in India, Justice & Victim are terms, only for Female.
4. Crucifying Male Accused to pacify or satiate feminist's thirst of male blood, is OK, even in Hon'ble Supreme Court.
5. Make comments on Men, it is a Joke. Ask Court proceedings related questions w.r.t. to female & then even CJI comes under firing line.

We, at MWT, are grossly concerned with the above chronology as it actually fades away the hope of Justice for Male gender, right at the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. Hon'ble Courts are ready to ASSUME A HUSBAND GUILTY, UNTILL PROVEN INNOCENT, based on his Gender. Same Courts are Happy to hear Bail petitions of Female Accused (or even Criminals), with the strongest ground for Bail prayer being, "I am a woman".

The above sequence of events has shaken the trust, understanding and the very belief of Male Gender in India, if they will ever have access to Fairness or if Constitution of India is left with any relevance, when it comes to Fundamental Rights or even other Rights of Men.

And last but not the least, INDIA IS STILL CALLED PATRIARCHAL, what an Irony!!
